and Indian Wars. Washington, Feb. 25.—The president today appointed Colonel Henry C. Corbin adjutant general of the army, to succeed General Samuel Breck, retired on account of age. General Breck had held the office only since Sept. 11 last, when he succeeded Adjutant General Hunries.

when he sneceeded Adjutant General Huggles.
General Breck was born in Massachusetts in 1814, and graduated from the military academy in 1855. He was an instructor in the academy at the outbreak of the civil war, but promptly relinquished that post to undertake active service in the field, where he served with gallantry throughout the war, earning several brevets.
Colonel Henry C. Corbin is a native of Ohio, and entered the army as an emilisted man at the beginning of the late war. Ho had a most brilliant carrier, and earned brevets for gallant and meritorious service at Decatur and Nashville. In 1886 he was transferred to the regular service as second Beuten.

General Lee has some slight foreknowl-General Lee has some slight foreknowledge of what is likely to happen in Javana when the facts connected with the sinking of the Maine are fully developed, because of advising Americans to leave. There was not a full passenger that on the Olivette, and those who came over were mainly tourists.

The exodus will become general, it is thought, by next week, when the harbor will be without an American ship of any kind.

The Mascotte replaces the steamer Olivette, while the latter is laid up temporarily for repairs. Out of the 10 passengers from Tampa only about a dozen went on to Havana. The traffic is all to the c'her way now.
